Travelling in Old Times.

A careful inspection of the vehicles of former times leads us to the conclusion that our forefathers were lined with zinc and copper fastened --for nothing short of it could have withstood the joltings and jarings, the bumpings and tumpings endured upon those who used any other methods of locomotion except that which nature provides. The coach in which General and Mrs. Washington went to Philadelphia upon his election to the Presidency was no doubt an instrument of torture. To the discomforts of this rambling old carriage may be added, for the General, the incessant wagging of Mr.
Washington's tongue, for it is a well-known fact that Martha was a shrewish nature, and made no bones of giving the General her views in a very forcible manner.

The method of travelling which they pursued gave publicity to the fact that the General had a certain leisure every night for a night-owl.
In the course of their journey, they arranged to spend the night at the house of the gentle hostess along between Mint Vernon and Philadelphia--and Martha was often heard to ask her lord and master until a kind source reassured that the General was safe in the land of dreams (on all worldly concerns).

The courier was the acknowledged and a necessary part of a journey in those days. A retinue of attendants, the following of which:
1. Master and Miss in a carriage.
2. Master's "boy" or horseboy, who led the horse for Master to ride when he wished to reach his legs.
3. A woman consisting two hair clippers and Miss's maid.
The rate of progression was about four miles an hour.

The habit of carrying servants on neighboring visits, obtained in Virginia and Maryland until the abolition of slavery. A form of recreation called "spending the day," was a tradition.
This consisted in going to a friend's house early in the morning, and staying until late in the evening, consuming the individual's attention of means. Besides the visitors, the coachman and horses, there was usually a "maid" who sat on the rear bench behind the carriage, swinging her legs in careless delight at the prospect of "going abroad."

Chaises were the only two seated vehicles in use, and were something like a modern tonnuckey, except that they had but two wheels.
Consequently, going up hill, the occupants were being spilled out behind, and coming down hill they were spilled out before. --Lynchburg Post.

A BIG BLAST—A very loud report from the river Friday indicated that a larger blast than usual had spent its force upon the river cliffs, where the hands of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad are at work. Just below Mint Spring was an immense overhanging rock, familiar to every one who had ever passed that way, that projected so far over the tow-path that it was frequently used as a shelter from rain, and being on the line of the railroad, had to be removed. Early last week preparations were commenced. Deep holes were drilled in the rock far up on the cliff and twenty kegs of powder and a proportionate amount of nitro-glycerine cartridges put into them. After three days work the blast was ready, and Friday it was exploded, throwing out the face of the cliff on the tow-path and into the river.
The largest boulder thrown out is estimated to weigh over one hundred tons, and so obvious the canal where lying on its edge, that a flatboat has to be used to ferry the canal horses around it. This is the largest and most effective blast that has been made on the road and paid the contract or otherwise for the expense incurred. The force was so great that the inhabitants of Daniel's Hill felt the shock considerably, and several wells on the hill, not far from the explosions, have gone dry and given no water since that time. A large number of hands are working the work vigorously and the foundation will be as everlasting as the hills. --Lynchburg Advance.

SUMMER RESORTS.

OKENY SPRINGS,
SHENANDOAH CO., VA.
SAMUEL M. MULLIN, Proprietor.
OPEN JUNE 1st.
This large and delightful summer resort, situated among the mountains of the Valley of Virginia, only 12 miles away from Baltimore and Ohio R. R. at Mount Jackson. From this point passengers leave for the Springs, being conveyed in elegant Park Wagon over a splendid mountain road, arriving in time for early tea.
Round trip tickets issued by railroad companies. Send for pamphlet.
J. E. CHANCELLOR, Res. Phy. my17-1m

CAPON SPRINGS AND BATH (ALKA-LINE LITHIA WATER.) HAMPSHIRE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA. Also Chalybeate Waters, rich in Iron, and White Sulphur Spring in the Neighborhood. Open on June 1st to as late in October as the company will justify. Unequalled by any mineral waters in America for the cure of acid dyspepsia, kidney and bladder troubles, urticaria, gout, diseases of the skin, catarrh, rheumatism, sciatica, and functional brain troubles. IT IS AN UNFAILING SOLVENT OF OXAL-IC ACID. These waters have proved of great value in many other diseases, but can be more confidently relied on in the above named than any other mineral springs in this country. I guarantee a cure if curable by mineral waters. The baths—hot, cold and shower—are unequalled of anywhere. The new and elegant swimming pool of alkaline water, the largest in the United States, if not in the world, is especially attractive.
No safer or better place for ladies or children to learn to swim. Plants to all their stomach and new beds to rest them on. Best mountain roads in Virginia; one half mile from the railroad extended upon them this spring. The air of this elevated region is pure and delicious.
Capon being nearer to all the cities north of the Potomac than any of the Virginia springs of note by an average of a hundred and fifty miles, claims a large patronage on that score. For pleasure or health the traveler need not go farther. Board, by the month, $32 $49 and $75, according to location. Send for pamphlet to W. S. THOMPSON, 708 15th st. Washington, D. C. for pamphlets and water.
Fine music, good boating, fishing and hunting in season; good livings. W. S. SALE my16-1m Proprietor.
